

6 Tips for feeling less nervous about public speaking.

Don't be afraid to use your hands

Take a deep breath, and don't rush through your speech

Remember that your audience is rooting for you

Move around a little, but not too much

Wash your face with cold water a few minutes before starting.

Focus on the person the crowd that is listening and looking at you.

