Things to Teach

Explain to your buddy how sometimes clues can be left in pictures and they can be hidden.

Read pages 14-17 with your partner and discuss the statements and the answers. Ask how they know?

Show the children your story visualisation and help them to make their own version. You may have to write for them.

Show your buddy your first few pages and explain how we start by describing the weather, the character and the setting.

Ask your buddy to tell you the start of their story and help them start to type up the first few pages. Give them help if needed.
