Things to Teach

Explain to your buddy that there are three parts to every story.

Read the warm up questions with your partner. Remember to allow them to have time to respond.

Watch the video of Gavin reading 'Where's My Memory?' and discuss the different stages of the story.

Show your buddy the story train and use your own example to explain how it works.

Ask the questions from the story train to your buddy and help them complete the task card. Allow them to draw their own pictures.
