

Researching Food

Use the research questions below to help you conduct thorough research on the food in your culture before designing your unique page and adding it to your book

What are the main foods people in this culture eat every day?

Are there any grains, vegetables, or fruits that are particularly important?

How do they obtain these foods (grow them, hunt, fish, trade)?

Does this culture have any special dishes for celebrations or holidays?

Are there any interesting ingredients or cooking methods they use?

Do they eat together as a family or community?

Are there any special customs or manners around eating?

Are there any stories or myths about food in this culture?

Are there any special drinks people enjoy in this culture?