

Your Book in The Upschool Library

Anyone can read your book online

The profits go to your chosen charity

You can share your book using a QR code or sharable link

Your family or school can order copies of your book

You can see how much you've raised

The screenshot shows the book's page on the Upschool platform. At the top, the author's name 'Gavin' and the book title 'The Art of Living' are displayed. The author's location is listed as Australia. A description states: 'This book is designed to help people understand how to live a more meaningful life.' The main content area features a colorful illustration of a cafe scene with a speech bubble from a woman saying, 'I believe that we can create a world where boys and girls grow up with the same chances. Where their potential isn't limited by expectations.' To the right of the illustration is a graphic titled '10 WAYS TO PROMOTE EQUALITY IN YOUR SCHOOL' with ten numbered tips: 1. Include everyone in games, 2. Share turns fairly, 3. Rotate group leadership, 4. Sit with different classmates, 5. Stand up for excluded peers, 6. Celebrate everyone's success, 7. Join mixed study groups, 8. Share classroom responsibilities equally, 9. Listen to all opinions, and 10. Encourage equal access to sports. Below the illustration is a 'BUY HARD BACK AUD 44.00' button, a 'REPORT ISSUE' button, and a 'SHARE BOOK' button. A progress indicator shows '20 / 32'. Below the buttons is a section titled 'What to expect?' with a 'Total Amount This User Generated for Charity' of 'USD $0'. On the right, there is an 'Author's Recommended Project' section for 'The Jane Goodall Institute Australia' with a photo of children holding signs that say 'SAVE CARRIAGE' and 'LABEL THEM OUT'.