

Design a 'Calming Corner'

A calming corner is a place where people can go if they are feeling overwhelmed in class or anxious about anything happening in their life.

Things that will be included in my place of calm

Here's what it might look like!

upschool

