

What Type of Story Will You Create?

This is the part where you let your imagination go wild. This is where you get to write a story about something you've always dreamed of. Remember, anything you can imagine can happen! Read the options below and discuss your ideas with your partner.

Tell a story to help the world solve a big problem. (Pollution.)

Take an animal on a wonderful adventure to discover something. (A Brave Penguin.)

Share a personal story where something important happens. (I Made a New Friend.)

Teach others a valuable life lesson. (Be kind to Everyone!)

Create a new world that only you know about. (A Magical Underwater Kingdom.)

Tell a historical story in the style of a picture book. (The Life of Frida Kahlo.)

Once you have discussed your ideas with your friends or teacher, put a green tick in the type of story you are going to write!
