

My Chosen Charity is.....

Answer the questions on the right about your chosen charity

What is the name of the charity you have chosen?

I have chosen 'So They Can'

Why do you think their work is important?

Everyday i come to school and don't think twice about how lucky I am. I love that they help children attend school in Africa. Everyone has the right to education.

What are your hopes for the future?

MY hope is that children all over the world can attend school without having to ask for other people to help. My hope is that education is free for every child on Earth!
