5. The writing a letter task card and an envelope and stamp.

Things to Teach

Talk to your buddy about small features that help younger children enjoy the book. Show your example.

Read pages 30-33 with your partner and answer the questions using the pictures to help. These questions are quite tricky and may need explaining.

Show your buddy how to add a new setting. Allow them to read the next line of their manuscript and tell you what the new setting is and the features that need to be included.

Use the 'Writing a Blurb' template to help your buddy answer the questions and write their very own blurb.

You may want to help them make their front cover into a blurb. If they have time, help them write and post a letter to an important person to invite them to their book launch. This can be their mum or dad if they wish!
